

THE SOCIETY FOR THE BENEFIT OF SONS AND DAUGHTERS OF
THE CLERGY OF THE CHURCH OF SCOTLAND ('The Society')

(Constituted and Incorporated 1792: Reconstituted 1934)

Scottish Charity Number: SCO 08760

ESDAILE TRUST ('The Trust')

(Incorporated by Order in Council 1969)

Scottish Charity Number: SCO 06938

The object of the Society and of the Trust is to assist in the education and advancement of the children of Ministers of the Church of Scotland by making annual grants from their funds in cases where such assistance is required. Grants from the Society are available for both boys and girls. Grants from the Trust are for girls only but the daughters of missionaries appointed or nominated by the Overseas Council of the Church of Scotland and of widowed deaconesses are also eligible.

Except in special circumstances no boy or girl shall be eligible for a grant until attaining the age of 12 years, or shall be continued as a beneficiary after attaining the age of 25 years.

To apply for a grant a parent or guardian ('The Applicant') should submit the accompanying application fully completed. In particular, the amount of the family income should be accurately stated and its sources detailed. Where application is made on behalf of more than one member of the family a separate form should be completed for each, but particulars common to all members of the family need only be inserted in one of the application forms.

Grants are made for one year only. Should a renewal of the grant be desired an application form must be lodged each year.

A report may be requested on how the grant has been used and the achievements of the beneficiary.
